CANON CANADA INC. DONATES $50,000 TO THE CANADIAN RED CROSS FOR ALBERTA FLOOD RELIEF EFFORTS

MISSISSAUGA, ON, 4 July 2013 – Canon Canada Inc., a leader in digital imaging solutions celebrating its 40th anniversary, today announced a $50,000 donation to the Canadian Red Cross to support the immediate and long-term relief efforts in Southern Alberta following devastating floods which caused significant damage to the city of Calgary and the surrounding areas. With a regional Canon Canada and Océ offices and Image Square, the Canon Experience Centre, in downtown Calgary, Canon is proud to show its support for the thousands of people whose homes and businesses have been destroyed by the flooding.

“Our company has been operating in Calgary since 1981. Our hearts go out to our friends, neighbours, and all the victims of the flood,” said Kevin Ogawa, President and CEO of Canon Canada Inc. “Canon Canada would like to show its support by donating $50,000 to the Canadian Red Cross to help restore and rebuild Calgary and the surrounding communities.”

The Canadian Red Cross provides emergency supplies and assistance to the evacuated families, working closely with local officials to ensure the basic needs of evacuees are being met. To donate to the Canadian Red Cross, please visit www.redcross.ca.
